SUBJECT: [redacted]
(Call to Chief Justice Warren
Concerning Derogatory Article on Chief Justice)

At 7:15 p.m., 11-16-66, ASAC James T. Moreland, San Francisco Office, was furnished information contained in [redacted] letter to Chief Justice Warren dated 11-8-66. He was instructed to have the Senior Resident Agent (SRA), Santa Rosa, California, [redacted] indicate that the FBI is discreetly looking into this matter to determine if there is a violation within FBI jurisdiction.

Subsequently, at 8:20 p.m., ASAC Moreland advised he had contacted the SRA at Santa Rosa and furnished him information regarding [redacted] pursuant to Bureau instructions. The SRA advised Moreland that

(b)(7)(C) Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
RE: [redacted]

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D) [redacted]

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D) [redacted] "Liberty Lobby," which was mentioned recently in a column by Drew Pearson.

Since the above information appears to completely cover any information we might receive by [redacted]
(b)(7)(C) ASAC Moreland was advised [redacted] regarding this matter unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau.

(b)(7)(C) Files concerning [redacted] and "Liberty Lobby" [illegible] but have not been reviewed.

ADDENDUM:

I agree that the attached letter should be sent, however, wish to add to this memorandum the fact that there was received in my office on 12/29/66 the attached document concerning [redacted]

[redacted] It is also recalled that the Director recently had me tell Chief Justice Warren that [redacted] It could be that the Chief Justice has advised Anderson and Pearson of this matter and that Anderson and Pearson have sent the information in question to the FBI.

These facts, however, do not negate the need to send the attached letter.
